Sarvangadhara - 2 therapists – 60 minutes

This highly enriching Ayurvedic ritual was a part of the health routine of royals in ancient India. The body is massaged rhythmically as warm medicated herbal milk is poured in a continuous stream. This treatment is extremely soothing and relaxing and is recommended for complete rejuvenation and strengthening of all body systems.

Shirodhara - 60 minutes

Rhythmic precision in the trickling of oil onto the forehead is believed to awaken the third eye, which in turn triggers healing and restores good health. This treatment is particularly effective in calming the mind and soothing the senses.

Katee vasthy - 45 minutes

This specialised treatment relieves lower back stress caused by poor posture. Warm herbal oil is applied and then retained on the lower back by a traditional technique using black gram dough. This is followed by a back massage that eases accumulated stress and strengthens the muscles.

Saundarya - 60 minutes

In this ancient ritual lies the secret of traditional Indian beauty. This complete facial treatment uses natural products to suit specific body types. It deeply cleanses and removes toxins, restoring the balance and elasticity of the skin. The main feature of this treatment is the gentle stimulation of the facial muscles that helps in balancing the marma (vital energy points) of the face leaving the skin supple and radiant.
